

Anniversary seminar:

Thinking Through Modernity

Venue: Aarhus University, Søauditorierne: Auditorium 3

TIME: Thursday 5 October 2017, 12-3PM

Modernity has been a central theme in the history of ideas during the last 50 years also at History of Ideas in Aarhus. For this anniversary seminar we have invited three innovative and internationally established scholars and thinkers to share their work and thoughts about the issue of modernity in the history of ideas.

Programme:

12-12.10: Welcome

12.10-12.55: Helge Jordheim (Oslo, Norge): "Modernity, Periodization, and Synchronization"

12.55-13.40: Lynn Thomas (Washington DC, USA): "Modernity's Failings and Analytical Possibilities"

13.40-13.55: Coffee and cake

13.55-14.40: Henrik Arnstad (Stockholm, Sverige): "The Decisive Battle of our Civilisation: The alternative modernities of generic fascism and neo-fascism"

14.40 – 15.00: Roundtable discussion

